Chances for a Fresh Start:
Discovering Career Prospects and Opportunities in The Gambia

ENG

Are you searching for job or career opportunities in The Gambia? Or do you think about starting your own business?

We offer advice on career perspectives, employment opportunities and business development.

Have you returned from abroad?

We support you in starting afresh in The Gambia

The Gambian-German Advisory Centre for Jobs, Training and Reintegration (GGAC) provides information, support and one-to-one advice on employment, business and educational perspectives in The Gambia. The support is intended both for returnees who need help with their social and economic reintegration and for local people seeking to improve their career prospects. The Centre and its partners help individuals to succeed on the job market in The Gambia and support those who are looking for education, trainings or options to set up a business.

In the areas of jobs, migration and reintegration, the Centre works in partnership with The Gambia Ministry of Trade, Industry, Regional Integration & Employment.

The Gambian-German Advisory Centre for Jobs, Training and Reintegration (GGAC) also provides advice on the requirements for regular migration.

We offer a wide range of support measures:

If you are looking for training and career opportunities in The Gambia, we offer advice and support in the following areas:

- Individual, client-oriented advice and career guidance
- Information and advice on educational opportunities, career guidance and labour market perspectives
- Support for targeted vocational skills development and on-the-job training
- Support for entrepreneurship and business start-up activities
- Referral to employers and placements into jobs and internships

If you are returning to The Gambia from abroad, we provide:

- Information and referral to reintegration support programmes for potential returnees and migrants who have returned to The Gambia
- Tailored advice – no matter if you are still abroad or already in The Gambia, everyone can receive advice
- Referrals to psychosocial support and temporary shelter services
- Contacts in departments, institutions and other advisory services of non-governmental organisations

All offers are free of charge and open to anyone!
